AUSTRALIAN EMBASSY'S 2017 DIRECT AID PROGRAM - APPLICATIONS OPEN

Applications are now open for the 2018 round of Australia's Direct Aid Program (DAP).

Grants of up to AU$45,000 are available for NGOs, community groups and other not-for-profit organisations to undertake small-scale development projects.

"Australia is proud to support small projects in Cambodia that are making a big difference communities," Australian Ambassador Angela Corcoran said.

"We are delighted to continue this funding in 2017, which is just one part of Australia's broader poverty reduction efforts in Cambodia," the Ambassador said.

DAP in Cambodia is a very competitive program. Applications must meet the requirements detailed in the DAP Guidelines found on the Australian Embassy's website:

<http://cambodia.embassy.gov.au>

The deadline for submitting Expressions of Interests for DAP support is 4 September 2017. If you have a question about the DAP application process, please contact
