

APPLICATION GUIDELINES
AUSTRALIAN EMBASSY PHNOM PENH

Senior Program Manager, Public Health (Development Cooperation)

To apply for the position of Senior Program Manager, Public Health, you will need to submit a one page pitch (one A4 page maximum) telling us how your skills, experience and qualifications make you the best candidate for the role. You should address the following selection criteria, by using specific examples from your professional and/or academic background of how you have previously demonstrated the below capabilities (rather than simply stating previous job descriptions/duties).

Selection Criteria

1. Ability to manage complex development projects, including contract, financial and risk management, as well as monitoring the delivery of outcomes.
2. Demonstrated ability to use your understanding of the Royal Government of Cambodia and Cambodia's development context to achieve policy reforms and/or development outcomes in the health sector.
3. Strong representation skills and an ability to maintain excellent working relationships with stakeholders, including with senior government officials, civil society, multilateral and bilateral development partners and the private sector.
4. Excellent written and spoken English language skills (with Khmer language also desirable).

You will also need to send us a curriculum vitae /resume (two A4 pages maximum) outlining your professional and academic background.

Applications will be assessed on your ability to demonstrate, against the selection criteria, that you possess or have significant potential to develop the required skills, knowledge, experience and qualifications to perform the role.

If your application is shortlisted, you may be asked to undertake further assessments, such as a writing test, to gauge your ability to perform the role.

The Australian Embassy is committed to providing an inclusive and diverse workplace where all employees are valued. We appreciate the experiences, skills and perspectives of all individuals. We actively encourage applications from women, people with disabilities and people from diverse backgrounds. The selection committee does not require personal information such as date of birth, marital status, height or weight. We do not require a photo.

Applications must be submitted by email to vacancy.cambodia@dfat.gov.au with "Senior Program Manager, Public Health" as the subject line by 11:30pm on Monday 3 October 2022.

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted for an interview.

What should I include in my resume?

The quality of your resume gives readers a vital first impression of you. As a minimum, you should ensure that you include the following elements:

- Personal Details – include your name, contact email address and phone numbers.
- Education – provide details of any education and qualifications that relate to the job you are applying for.
- Work Experience – include relevant work experience and outline the main responsibilities and achievements that relate to the job you are applying for. Organise your employment history in chronological order, starting with the most recent, and indicate actual dates of employment. Make sure to explain any gaps in time.
- Other Experience – if relevant, briefly mention any extra-curricular activities, interests or volunteer/community work that you have participated in and highlight what you gained from that experience.
- Referees – include the name and contact details of two professional referees who can validate and support your application.
- Layout – A resume of no more than two pages showing relevant experience. Use an easy to read font and a simple, consistent format. Use bullet points to break up text. Highlight important facts, and ensure that you can back them up with examples if asked at interview.

What should I include in my one page pitch?

Your one page pitch is a chance to tell us why you are the right person for the job. We want to know why you want to work at the Embassy, what you can offer us, and how your skills, knowledge, experience and qualifications are applicable to the role. In a nutshell – why should we hire you?

Try not to duplicate information that can already be found in your resume, but do highlight any specific examples or achievements that will demonstrate your ability to perform the role.
